You also agree that credit is advanced on each respective transaction date notwithstanding any arrangement permitting later payment under this Agreement. You further agree to operate your Account in such a manner (including without limitation by maintaining sufficient balances within your credit limit) that interest, fees, charges, and other amounts payable under this Agreement will not exceed any such maximum rate or amount. 19. PAYMENTS ON YOUR ACCOUNT

You must pay each month at least the Minimum Payment Due shown on your monthly statement by the Payment Due Date. Payments must conform to the requirements set out on that monthly statement; these requirements may vary without prior notice. We may delay the availability of credit until we confirm that your payment has cleared. This may happen even if we credit your payment to your Account. If necessary, we may adjust your Accounts to correct errors, process returns and reversed payments, and handle similar issues. You may pay the entire amount you owe us at any time. Payments made in any billing cycle that are greater than the Minimum Payment Due will not affect your obligation to make the next Minimum Payment Due. If you overpay or if there is a credit balance on your Account, we will not pay interest on such amounts. We may reject payments not denominated in Canadian dollars or not drawn on a Canadian financial institution.

You must make the required payments even when we are delayed or prevented because of a postal strike or any other cause from sending you a monthly statement. You must contact us at 1- 800-259-1167 at least once a month during any delay or interruption to obtain Account and payment information.

We reserve the right to reject any payment if your Account has a credit balance as of the day we receive that payment. Payment of your Minimum Payment Due may not avoid the assessment of Over-limit Fees. Generally, credits to your Account, such as those generated by merchants or by person to person money transfers, are not treated as payments and will not reduce your Minimum Payment Due.

Any credit balance we allow will not be available until we confirm your payment has cleared. We may reduce the amount of any credit balance by any new charges. We will return to you any credit balance greater than $10 that has been on your closed Account longer than 2 consecutive billing cycles.

20. MINIMUM PAYMENT DUE

The Minimum Payment Due shown on your monthly statement each billing cycle will be the greater of:

1. 4.00% of your New Balance at the end of the billing cycle (rounded up the next dollar) or $30, whichever is greater, plus all past due Minimum Payments.
2. the Total New Balance rounded to the nearest dollar. The Minimum Payment Due will never be less than $30.00 unless your Total New Balance is less than $30.00 in which case the Minimum Payment Due will equal the Total New Balance.

The Minimum Payment Due will never be more than your Total New Balance.

If a payment is credited to your Account but is returned unpaid in a later billing cycle, we will recalculate the Minimum Payment Due for the billing cycle in which the payment was originally credited.

21. HOW WE ALLOCATE YOUR PAYMENTS

We will allocate your payments in the manner we determine without regard to any payment instructions you may give. If interest is charged, the rate will be the same for all balances; however, we will allocate payments in the following order: unpaid interest charges, other charges, older purchases, and new purchases.

22. PROMISE TO PAY APPLIES TO ALL PERSONS

All persons who initially or subsequently request, accept or guarantee the Accounts are individually and together responsible for any total outstanding balance, even though you have requested that we send statements and notices for the Account to only one of you. If you and one or more persons are responsible to pay any total outstanding balance, we may refuse to release any

“You” and “your” mean each and all of the persons who are granted, accept or use an Account we hold. “You” and “your” also mean any other person who has guaranteed payment of this Account, when used in the sections entitled, YOUR AGREEMENT WITH US, and PERSONAL INFORMATION CONSENT, and when used in each of the sections relating to payment of this Account (e.g., YOUR PROMISE TO PAY, and HOW WE ALLOCATE YOUR PAYMENTS).

For the Agreement, we will use the definitions described under the section heading DEFINITIONS or as otherwise defined in this Agreement. If we use another capitalized term in this document, the term has the meaning as used in your monthly statement.

We use section headings (e.g., DEFINITIONS) to organize this Agreement. The headings are for reference purposes only.

7. BALANCE TRANSFER

If a balance transfer is processed at the opening of the account, you understand that you are acknowledging, confirming, accepting and ratifying the debt transferred to your Account as a Balance Transfer. To the full extent allowed by Applicable Law, you are waiving any defence that would prevent us from collecting the Balance Transfer amount. The defence you are waiving include a defence that the time may have expired for filing a lawsuit to collect the debt transferred to your Account as a Balance Transfer. The statute of limitations requires a lawsuit be filed within a specific time after a debt is in default and would prevent the collection of the debt in a court of law if a lawsuit is not filed within the required time. You agree that this Credit Agreement:

- a) serves as your written acknowledgement of the justness and accuracy of the debt included in the Balance Transfer amount,
- b) evidences your willingness and promise to pay the entire Balance Transfer amount pursuant to the terms of this Credit Agreement, and
- c) serves as your signature to, and acceptance of, this Credit Agreement to the full extent required by any Applicable Law and establishes a written agreement between you and us.

8. ANNUAL INTEREST RATES

“APR” means Annual Interest Rate.

“DPR” means Daily Periodic Rate and is calculated by dividing the APR by 365.

Current rates for the categories are set out in the Disclosure Statement and are shown on your monthly statement.

9. CALCULATION OF PERIODIC RATE INTEREST CHARGES

We calculate Periodic Rate Interest Charges for each category by the Daily Rate Average Balance

Method. That is, the average daily balance for each category is calculated by adding together the daily balance outstanding for each day in the billing cycle and dividing that total by the number of days in the billing cycle and then multiplying that number by the DPR and the number of days in the cycle. Once a month, we add any accumulated interest to the total outstanding balance you owe.

10. INTEREST FREE PURCHASE

You will not be charged interest on Purchases that appear on your monthly statement for the first time, as long as you pay us the Total New Balance by the Payment Due Date.

of you from liability until all of the cards and other credit devices outstanding under the Account have been returned to us and you repay us the total outstanding balance owed to us at any time under the terms of this Agreement.

23. DEFAULT

You will be in default of this Agreement if any of the following occurs:

1. you fail to make any required Minimum Payment Due by its Payment Due Date;
2. If any payment you make is rejected, not paid or cannot be processed;
3. If you become insolvent or bankrupt;
4. If you die or become legally incompetent;
5. If you exceed or attempt to exceed your Credit Limit;
6. if any statement made by you to us (in your application or otherwise) is untrue or misleading;
7. if you fail to abide by any other term of this Agreement; or
8. if we reasonably deem our prospect of repayment to be materially impaired.

Our failure to exercise any of our rights when you default does not mean that we are unable to exercise those rights upon later default. If we waive a Default, we do not waive the right to declare the same or another event occurring later as a Default of your Account.

Whether or not you are in Default, we may immediately terminate this Agreement without first giving notice to you. You agree to pay to us all amounts due in accordance with this Agreement, including Interest Charges and other fees and charges as provided in this Agreement until all sums you owe are paid in full.

If you are in default we or Fidem can require immediate payment of your total outstanding balance, demand the return of your Card cut in half, initiate collection activity and use any legal means we deem necessary to recover the Account balance from you. You agree to pay any costs incurred by us or Fidem in attempt to recover the Account balance to the extent such costs are not prohibited by law.

24. OTHER PAYMENT TERMS

We can accept late payments, partial payments, or payments with any restrictive writing without losing any of our rights under this Agreement. This means that no payment, including those marked with “Paid in Full” or with any other restrictive words, shall operate as an accord and satisfaction without the prior written approval of one of our senior officers. You may not use a post-dated cheque to make payment. If you do postdate a payment cheque, we may elect to honour it upon presentment or return it un- credited to the person that presented it, without in either case waiting for the date shown on the cheque. We are not liable to you for any loss or expense incurred by you arising out of the action we elect to take.

25. YOUR CREDIT LIMIT

Your credit limit is disclosed to you when you receive your Card and, on each monthly statement. You may contact us to request an increase on your credit limit. The amount shown on your monthly statement as Available Credit does not take into account any Purchases, interest charges, fees, any other transactions, or credits which are posted to your Account after the closing date of that monthly statement. Such transactions could result in your credit limit being exceeded and result in the assessment of Over- limit Fees. We require you to pay your Over-limit balance before the end of your current billing cycle.

26. WHAT WE MAY DO IF YOU ATTEMPT TO EXCEED YOUR CREDIT LIMIT

The total outstanding balance on your Account plus authorizations at any time must not be more than your credit limit. If you attempt a transaction which results in your total outstanding balance

(plus authorizations) exceeding your credit limit, we may:

1. permit the transaction without raising your credit limit;
2. permit the transaction and treat the amount of the transaction that is more than the credit limit as immediately due; or
3. refuse to permit the transaction.

If we refuse to permit the transaction, we may advise the person who attempted the transaction that it has been refused. If we refuse to permit a Balance Transfer, we may do so by advising the person presenting the Balance Transfer that credit has been refused, that there are insufficient funds to pay the Balance Transfer, or in any other manner.

If we have previously permitted you to exceed your credit limit, it does not mean that we will permit you to exceed your credit limit again. If we decide to permit you to exceed your credit limit, we may charge an Over-limit Fee as provided in this Agreement and you are required to pay the Over-limit balance immediately. We may decrease your credit limit at any time by delivering you a notice to your most recent address thirty (30) days prior. Such notice will not affect your obligation to pay us or Fidem.

27. WE MAY AMEND THIS AGREEMENT

Subject to the limitations of Applicable Law, we may at any time change or remove any of the terms and conditions of, or add new terms or conditions to this Agreement. We may change this Agreement based on economic or market conditions, our business strategies or for any other reason (including reasons unrelated to you or your Account). We will notify you of any changes in any one or more of the following ways: by sending you a notice (written or electronic) and by posting any such changes, as well as the most recent version of this Agreement, on the Website. As of the effective date included in any notice, the changed or new terms will apply to the Card, including, without limitation, all future transactions made using the Card. Notwithstanding the foregoing, advance notice of any change may not be given if it is necessary to make any such change immediately in order to maintain or restore the security of the Card or any related payment system or comply with Applicable Law. We may, in our sole discretion, cancel or suspend any features or services of the Card at any time, with or without cause, and without prior notice to you. We may introduce new fees or increase fees, interest rates, or other charges by delivering a Disclosure Statement to the Cardholder's most recent address thirty (30) days prior to increased or new fees being imposed and notice will be posted on the Website for a period of sixty (60) days prior to the effective date.

28. WE MAY SUSPEND OR CLOSE YOUR ACCOUNT

We may suspend or close your Account or otherwise terminate your right to use your Account. We may do this at any time and for any reason. Your obligations under this Agreement continue even after we have done this. You must return or destroy all Cards or other credit devices issued on the Account when we request.

Your Account will be automatically cancelled if, within the first three billing cycles following the Commencement Date, you do not:

1. make a Qualifying payment; or
2. use your Card to make any Purchase, other than a Balance Transfer

If your Account is cancelled, by you or by us, before you make a Qualifying Payment, or make a Purchase, other than a Balance Transfer, then you will not owe any fees or charges in connection with your Account, and any partial forgiveness of prior debt that you were to obtain in connection with transferring the balance of such debt to the Account will not apply and the

The benchmark rate will be the actual exchange rate applied at the time of the conversion and is generally set daily.
